PITX records 100 million Passengers since 2018

The Parañaque Integrated Terminal Exchange (PITX) proudly announces that it has recorded a new milestone by serving 102,302,706 million passengers since its opening in 2018 to today.

This achievement is a testament to PITX's commitment to providing safe, reliable, and convenient transportation services to the public. Since its inception, PITX has served as a hub for various modes of transportation, including buses, jeepneys, and taxis, making it easier for commuters to reach their destinations.

The PITX management expressed its gratitude to the riding public for their continued trust and patronage in the terminal. "We are humbled and grateful for the support and confidence of the riding public. This milestone is a reflection of our unwavering commitment to providing efficient services to our passengers," said PITX Corporate Affairs and Gov't Relations Head Jason Salvador.

PITX remains committed to improving its services and facilities to better serve the needs of its passengers. The terminal is set to launch new initiatives and programs in the coming months, including the introduction of new routes and partnerships with various transportation companies.

As the terminal celebrates this new milestone, it reiterates its commitment to providing safe, convenient, and reliable transportation services to the public.
